Moscow, May 2.

ALL things continue quiet here. Next Week the Swediſh Envoy parts hence for Stockholm, having finiſhed his Negotiation in this Court to his ſatisfaction, and the Czars have reſolved to ſend an Extraordinary Ambaſſador to the King of Sweden, to adjuſt the differences concerning the Frontiers, which were left undecided by the Commiſſioners of both Crowns.

Legborn, May 31. The 26th inſtant arrived here the Genoua Merchant, Captain Appleby Commander, in 18 days from Lisbonne. It is ſaid, the Grand Duke intends to fit out ſeveral Galleys very ſuddenly, to be employed againſt the Turkiſh Corſairs, who do infeſt theſe Seas. Captain Pieterſon is ſailed from hence for Tripoly, to negotiate a Peace between the States General and that Government. It is ſaid, That the French Fleet under the command of Monſieur du Queſne, is gone for Algiers.

From the Imperial Camp neaar Comorra, June 3. The 28th paſt the Duke of Lorrain marched within ſight of Gran with 8000 Horſe, 4000 Foot, all the Dragoons and 8 Pieces of Cannon, and finding the Turks ſo advantageouſly Poſted upon an Eminence near that place, that he could not without great hazard attack them, returned hither again, and as is ſaid has given Orders for the Cavalry to paſs the Danube to morrow, in order to inveſt Newheuſel, two Leagues from hence; All the Army is preparing for the Siege, and it is hoped his Highneſs, by means of his great Ordnance and Bombs, will in a ſhort time be Maſter of the place. Count Teckeley is ſtill Encamped near Tockay, declining to joyn his Troops with thoſe of the Turks. We have advice by a Deſerter, who is fled to the Imperial Camp from Buda, That the Grand Vizier had not as yet paſſed the River Drave, That his Army was extreamly haraſſed and weakened, by reaſon of the long Marches they have been obliged to make; and that the Vizier of Buda was very advantageouſly Poſted between Gran and Buda, where he had a Bridge of Boats for the paſſage of the Turkiſh Troops.

Presbourg, June 1. The Viſier of Buda has ſent Orders to Count Teckely to joyn the Tartars, which are on their march to Hungary, by the way of Tranſylvania; wherein it is not doubted but he will be prevented by General Schutz, who is poſted near Tranſchin, and will be reinforced with 6000 Poles, which the Prince de Lubomirsky is bringing into the Emperor's ſervice. We are told, That he has taken poſſeſſion of the County of Arwa in his Imperial Majeſties name, and that the Nobility thereof are joyned with him. Our advices from the Imperial Camp ſay, That a Body of 15000 Turks are poſted near Gran. And it is reported, That the Vizier of Buda had ſent to acquaint the Duke of Lorrain, That the Grand Signior was reſolved to obſerve the Peace until its due expiration; but that his Highneſs had returned anſwer, That the Turks had long ago broke it, as well by their open aſſiſting of the Rebels, as by taking ſeveral places of importance belonging to the Emperour.

Vienna, June 6. The three Princes of Newbourg have been taken very ill upon their return from Italy, and on Friday laſt Prince Wolfang, who was Canon of Breſlaw, dyed at Newſtat. The firſt Inſtant the Duke of Lorrain returned to his Camp near Comorra, not having been able to remove the Turks from the advantageous Poſt they had taken near Gran, whither the Vizier of Buda and the Baſſa of Waradin had ſent a conſiderable number of Troops to reinforce the Gariſon. The fourth Inſtant the Imperial Army paſſed the Danube. The Duke of Lorrain has ſent out a conſiderable Party to attempt the burning of the Bridge of Gran. The Count de Serin, Governor of Zatmar, being arrived here from Hungary, is gone to attend the Emperor at Luxembourg. Yeſterday arrived here an Expreſs with Letters from the Baron de Saponara, who is employed by the Emperor to Count Teckeley, Copenhagen, June 11. The Heer Guldenlieu is returned to his Government of Norway, to obſerve the motions of the Swedes on that ſide, who, as our Letters from Stockholm ſay, are bringing together a Body of 10000 men on that Frontier; and uſe all poſſible diligence in fitting out their Fleet to Sea, which, according to our advices from Calmar, will conſiſt of 30 Men of War.

Bruſſels, June 12. On Sunday next his Excellency intends to go and take a Review of the Camp which is forming at Pieton. The French Cavalry which were Quartered near Markion decamped the eighth Inſtant, and are now Poſted near Bouchain. The States of Haynault have received Orders from his Excellency to repair the Ways between the Sambre and the Meuſe. The French intend to have a Camp at la Buchierre, to obſerve the deſign of that which our Governor has formed at Pieton. On Saturday laſt the Dutcheſs of Bouillon arrived here from France, and yeſterday parted hence for Holland. All things are as yet very quiet in theſe parts. The Duke de Havre and the Count de Vertain are returned hither from Flanders, whither his Excellency ſent them to renew the Magiſtrates of the ſeveral Towns in that Province. The Magiſtrates of Antwerp have not as yet conſented to the continuation of the Taxes demanded by his Excellency.

Bruſſels, June 15. Sunday laſt being the Emperor's Birth-day, his Excellency entertained the Court with a moſt magnificent Supper and Ball. Yeſterday the Lord Lanſdown parted from hence towards Hungary, with a very noble Equipage, having been very well received by his Excellency, and Complimented by all the Generals and the Nobility
